1. General Description of Data to be Managed*1.1. Name of the Data, data collection Project, or data-producing Program:

Census Statistics (State)

1.2. Summary description of the data:

Data from the 2010 Decennial Census and the 2012 - 2016 five year estimates from the American Community Survey were joined to TIGER/Line shapefiles produced by the Census Bureau to produce this visual representation of select census statistics. The Decennial Census is a nation wide survey conducted every tenth year by the U.S. Census Bureau as mandated by U.S. The Constitution for the purpose of establishing an accurate count of the country's population. The results, published at the end of each survey year, are primarily used by the government to allocate funds and apportion seats in the U.S. House of Representatives. Until 2000, one in every 6 households received a "long form" of the Decennial Census to collect additional social, housing and economic information, but the long form was discontinued after the 2000 Decennial Census. The continuing need for timely, nationally consistent information on the topics formerly included in the long form lead the Census Bureau to develop the American Community Survey (ACS) in 2005. The ACS is an ongoing survey program which randomly samples about 3.5 million households throughout the year. Data from the ACS is published in several formats each fall. In addition to the fifty States, the Census Bureau treats the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and each of the Island Areas (American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands) as the statistical equivalents of States for the purpose of data presentation. Additional information about the Decennial Census and the American Community Survey is available at <https://www.census.gov/programs-surveys.html>.

5. Data Lineage and Quality

NOAA has issued Information Quality Guidelines for ensuring and maximizing the quality, objectivity, utility, and integrity of information which it disseminates.

5.1. Processing workflow of the data from collection or acquisition to making it publicly accessible

(describe or provide URL of description):

Process Steps:

- 2018-07-02 00:00:00 - Join the downloaded tables to the Coastal States layer using the County FIPS attribute to copy the median household income from the ACS table and the total population and total housing units from the Census table into the associated attributes in the Coastal States layer.
- 2018-07-01 00:00:00 - Download Census and ACS data from American Factfinder as comma-delimited (*.csv) documents. Delete any superfluous attributes.

5.1.1. If data at different stages of the workflow, or products derived from these data, are subject to a separate data management plan, provide reference to other plan:

5.2. Quality control procedures employed (describe or provide URL of description):

6. Data Documentation

The EDMC Data Documentation Procedural Directive requires that NOAA data be well documented, specifies the use of ISO 19115 and related standards for documentation of new data, and provides links to resources and tools for metadata creation and validation.
